

music

WXDU specializes in an eclectic sound created by our DJs, who produce audio art from many genres of music. Most of our airtime is filled by free-form shows, with styles ranging from world to country, jazz to hip-hop, punk to indie rock. Our knowledgeable music staff picks new and innovative releases for our playlist. Our DJs mix these new sounds with their own favorite classics to create their own musical personalities. In addition to these free-form shows, WXDU also provides listeners with a slate of specialty shows, including twang, jazz, world, local, urban, and comedy. Rounding out the schedule are shows by Youth Voice Radio and WXDU's very own sports staff.

training

WXDU recruits DJs three times a year. You don't need any experience, just a willingness to explore new sounds. It's a great way to learn a lot about music. To sign up for training, e-mail training@wxdu.org or leave a message at 684.2957.

station events

WXDU hosts many wonderful public events throughout the year, including a fall benefit show, PROM, and a night at the Starlite Drive-In.

giveaways

WXDU gives away tickets daily to local music clubs, such as the Cat's Cradle, Local 506, Go! Studios and Kings. Tune in to win tickets and help support our local music clubs.

wxdu is a committee of the duke university union.

our "official" mission

WXDU, as a member of the Duke University Union, exists to inform, educate, and entertain both the students of Duke University and the surrounding community of Durham through quality progressive alternative radio programming. WXDU seeks to give its staff the freedom to pursue their personal aesthetic within the framework of a cohesive format. WXDU aims to provide the listener with an alternative viewpoint untainted by commercial interests. WXDU should maintain good relations with the music industry without compromising its integrity and nationally recognized commitment to quality programming. WXDU must remain a laboratory where all members are free to make and learn from their mistakes.

in other words...

WXDU's purpose is making your airwaves interesting.

Country/Twang: Maybe this ain't Nashville, but 'XDU isn't hurting for country music—we've got four shows of twang, roots, Americana, alt-country or whatever you want to call it. Sat. 6-8 p.m.: Rick Cornell is a music writer for The Spectator, No Depression and Music Monitor. The first hour of his show is "Border Radio," the best of alt-country. The second hour is "Starry Eyes," as much power pop as you can handle. Sun. 8-10 a.m.: "A Broken Heart and a Glass of Beer" explores real country music: Hank Williams, Johnny Cash, Ernest Tubb and Merle Haggard, to name a few. Sun. 12-3 p.m.: Steve Gardner of "Topsoil" was recently voted the Best DJ in the Triangle by the CitySearch.com readers' poll. Steve serves up a great mix of roots and twang music with frequent live guests! Sun. 7-9 p.m.: Dave Tilley has been hosting the "Bull City Cosmic Hoedown" for over a decade. Listen to his unique blend of roots music with live guests Sunday nights.

Urban/Hip-Hop: Real hip-hop from underground and local artists. Call in for shout-outs and listen for local events. No other station in the Triangle boasts such an extensive, dedicated urban staff—we're the only place for serious hip-hop fans to tune in. Sun./Mon. 11 p.m.-2 a.m.: Start the week off right with Dho-Rabb. Tues. 12-3 a.m.: DJ Bum Rush takes the mic. Fri. 12-3 a.m.: Torrance T. spins dancehall reggae. Fri. 10 p.m.-12 a.m.: Check out DJ Samps from Madd Wax! Sat. 12-2 a.m.: Dho keeps the turntables spinning.

Sportz: Every Sunday night from 10-11 p.m., the WXDU sports crew bursts onto the air with an hour of high-energy discussion about the latest Duke sports news. Listeners are encouraged to e-mail or call in and opine about sports events and personalities. Visits from Duke sports celebrities are not uncommon!

Youth Voice Radio: WXDU is proud to sponsor YVR, a weekly program airing every Saturday evening from 5-6 p.m. Run entirely by high school students, this show offers the opportunity for enthusiastic teens to share their viewpoints and music with our listeners.

Comedy: "Laugh Tracks," hosted by Marty every Saturday from noon-1 p.m., is our longest-continuously-running show. Comedy acts range from Woody Allen to Frank Zappa, including classic work from legends like Spike Jones and Benny Hill.

Space: Marty also hosts "New Frontiers" from 10 a.m.-noon Saturdays. This is two hours of space music to ease you into the weekend—almost-ambient, almost-trance, almost-folk, and definitely-refreshing.

WXDU specializes in an eclectic sound created by our DJs, who produce audio art from many genres of music. Most of our airtime is filled by free-form shows, with styles ranging from twang to two-step, indie rock to Indian and hip-hop to hardcore. We mix outstanding classics with new and innovative releases picked by our knowledgeable music staff. We encourage our DJs to develop their own musical personalities, allowing them the opportunity to educate themselves in many genres while passing that knowledge on to our listeners. In addition to our core of free-form shows, we provide a variety of specialty programming... the details of which are highlighted in this guide. Enjoy!

Local & Live: WXDU is committed to nurturing the local music scene, and Ross Grady is our resident guru of all local music. He presents the best and brightest local bands live on Sundays from 5-7 p.m. Past performances have included Whiskeytown, Gumption, $2 Pistols, Bicentennial Quarters, and many others. Ross also features new recordings from local bands on his show. Check out www.trianglerock.com for sound clips and Ross's picks of upcoming events.

World: Yes, it's a big world of music out there. That's why WXDU has four rotating DJs to bring the world to you every Saturday from 1-3 p.m. An amazing array of cultures are represented on this show... African, Indian, Indonesian, Cuban, Tuvan...and featured artists include Fela, Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan, Lydia Mendoza, Gendra Pasundan, and many more.

RPM/Dance: Every Friday at 8 p.m., 'XDU assaults Durham with two hours of drum & bass. Host Cooper mailorders new releases that can't be found in the Triangle and regularly brings guest DJs.

Jazz: WXDU presents six unique Jazz Shows, 6-8 p.m. weekdays and 10 a.m.-noon on Sundays. Mon. 6-8 p.m.: Phil plays the best of straight-ahead jazz in the "Jazz Zone." Tues. 6-8 p.m.: Walt Davis, founder of the Alliance of Improvised Music (AIM), pushes the boundaries with free, improvised, and avant-garde jazz. Wed. 6-8 p.m.: Santa Salsera hosts the Latin show, your one stop for salsa, cumbia, merengue, and all modern Latin music. Thurs. 6-8 p.m.: Ella, Billie, Armstrong, Sinatra, Darrin, Prima... Join Christa in "Divaville" to hear all of the Crooners. Fri. 6-8 p.m.: Dizzy serves up his jazz with lots of soul. Don't be surprised to hear Coltrane and Parliament in the same set. Sun. 10 a.m.-noon: Professor Paul Jeffries holds jazz class for his students and for you!
